A Timeline

While every wedding is different, there are often key elements of tradition that couples choose to include on their special day. We recommend working with your sales manager or wedding planner to detail a customized timeline to ensure a smooth, carefree and joyful experience. The following are sample timelines to help lay the foundation for your event.
Hold a “State of the Union” meeting with your sales manager, or wedding planner. Among the details discussed in this meeting are linen color options, menu selections/ideas, beverage details, and floor plan needs. While preliminary details have been discussed, the real planning often cannot begin until many of the details surrounding your event have been determined. A meeting is traditionally set up to review the event from start to finish. That allows for both fact-finding by the sales manager and further insight by you, the client.

A meeting is set to review what has previously been presented and to draft a tasting menu that includes items you would ideally like to see at your event. Additionally, at this meeting the sales manager will address any vendor questions or concerns, review dance floor needs, draft a floor plan, and select linens for the tasting.

A tasting is booked six to eight weeks prior to the event date. While this is primarily an opportunity to select the final menu for the event, this meeting is also often used to finalize other details, including: Napkin fold, signature beverage selection, timeline customization, floor plan revision, equipment details, and linen selection.

MIMOSA BAR
Your guests have joined you for the beginning of your new adventure. Before it’s time to say farewell, show them your appreciation for their love and support with a lovely brunch service. We love when couples tell their story through food. The laid-back atmosphere of brunch is the perfect time to have a little fun with a themed menu!

Enjoy gourmet crêpe stations and champagne cocktails with your guests before jetting off for your Parisian honeymoon.

Indulge in Pineapple Vanilla Bean Waffles before darting off for your romantic Hawaiian getaway.

Did your love story start in Texas? Break out the BBQ Pulled Pork Sliders on Mini Brioche Buns, and kick up your heels with a little down-home gourmet comfort food.
“I always tell our guests that we have to cook what we can do really well, especially if it’s for a large crowd. There is always a way around to give people what they like, but also what the kitchen can produce because we want to make sure we are setting ourselves up for success.”

10 Questions to Ask Your Venue

1. Is there parking on-site?
2. Are shuttles required/available?
3. Is valet available? If so, how much?
4. Is the kitchen on-site or does it need to be built out?
5. Does the venue have a preferred caterer or an inclusive caterer?
6. What equipment is included with the venue and what needs to be rented?
   - China
   - Glassware
   - Tables and chairs
   - Service equipment
   - Linens
   - Napkins
   - Candles
   - Dance Floor
7. Furniture and Décor – rental costs?
8. Vendor Meals – does reception site provide food and beverage to wedding vendors?
9. Service Staffing – what costs are included?
10. Is the clean-up fee included?
The food at your wedding should be a direct reflection of your personality. Wolfgang Puck’s skilled culinary artists are committed to incorporating elements, presentations, and foods that mirror the things that make your relationship unique. Weddings are not “one size fits all,” so it is important to determine the dining structure that best fits your guests and your venue.
PLATED DINNER OR BUFFET-STYLE?

When planning your reception, one of the most important decisions a couple needs to make is between a plated dinner or a buffet-style service. We’re happy to accommodate either. But it can be a little tricky knowing which would work better for you and your guests.

Plated Dinner

Buffet
Think flavors of the season — they’re the freshest and most welcome in any wedding’s given timeframe.

A FEW IDEAS TO CONSIDER:

- For spring, welcome the warming weather with fresh dishes like a Kale Salad with Grilled Artichokes or a Sweet Pea Pancake with crab and pickled red onions.

- During summer, incorporate sunshine into your events with choices like Grilled Shrimp Tacos in Lettuce Cups and a Vegetarian Tower of roasted vegetables with goat cheese quenelle and fennel-tomato fondue.

- Embrace autumn weather with warming bites such as Butternut Arancini with cranberry gastrique and Caramelized Onion & Blue Cheese Toasts.

- In winter, favor hearty and substantial menu choices like Heirloom Carrots with red quinoa and Roasted Chicken with caramelized butternut squash.
Spring

FRUITS Apricots, Honeydew Melon, Mango, Strawberries, Pineapples

VEGETABLES Artichokes, Asparagus, Corn, Mustard Greens, Spinach

DISHES Twice-Baked Baby Potatoes with French Feta, Artichoke and Spring Onion; Parmesan Shortbread with Grilled Asparagus, Morels and Chervil

Summer

FRUITS Asian Pear, Blackberries, Blueberries, Cantaloupe, Peaches, Raspberries

VEGETABLES Beets, Bell Peppers, Squash, Green Beans, Zucchini

DISHES Field Green Salad with Wildflowers, and Honey-Blackberry Vinaigrette; Stuffed Zucchini Flower Tempura with Tomato Sauce

Fall

FRUITS Cranberries, Grapes, Guava, Huckleberries, Pumpkin

VEGETABLES Acorn Squash, Broccoli, Brussels Sprouts, Cauliflower, Sweet Potatoes

DISHES Savory Squash Soup; Pumpkin Ravioli

Winter

FRUITS Clementines, Date Plums, Papaya, Passion Fruit, Persimmons

VEGETABLES Belgian Endive, Collard Greens, Chestnuts, Kale, Leeks

DISHES Kale Salad with Frisée, Medjool Dates, Pickled Onions and Lemon Vinaigrette; Braised Chestnuts

All Year

FRUITS Apples, Bananas, Cherry Tomatoes, Coconut, Lemons

VEGETABLES Avocados, Black Eyed Peas, Carrots, Mushrooms, Onions

DISHES Coconut Lentils with Curried Root Vegetables and Green Harissa; Angel Hair Pasta with Fresh Tomato, Basil and Garlic

What’s in Season?
“I think everybody has a budget they want to adhere to and not everyone has to serve white truffles or caviar to make a great wedding. Naturally, I’m a chef, so I believe people should watch their flower and decoration budgets.”

“First Date” STATIONS

Share the story of your adventure together — from the very beginning — with your wedding guests through innovative “first date” stations.

If your first date involved a stop of ice cream, let your guests sprinkle and spoon sweet toppings on chilled treats, just like you did that first encounter!

Was there a proverbial long walk on a beautiful sandy beach? With small seafood bites, everyone in attendance will almost hear the sound of waves in the distance.

Did you meet up at a candle-lit Italian restaurant for that initial dinner? Recreate the evening for everyone with hand-made pastas and delectable sauces.

These stations are a rare and engaging opportunity to share life’s little details with the people who care most about you.
What’s a party without refreshments? With custom-designed bar options, you can treat your guests to more than just basic brews.

Why not offer:

- Artisan-designed cocktails themed to memorable moments?
- Wine pairings and a quick educational lesson about what makes them special?
- Beer or wine sampling flights?
- A custom hot chocolate bar?
- An espresso/cappuccino station?
- A re-creation of the couple’s favorite signature drink from the bar where they’re regulars?
- Irish coffees, hot toddies or spiced warm ciders?

Surprise your guests with beverage options that are a true reflection of the both of you individually, and who you are together.
Providing your guests with a build-it-yourself dessert bar that lasts after the tables have been cleared is a great way to keep the event going. An array of scrumptious small bites that can be combined in inventive ways allows friends and family to indulge their creativity and their sweet tooth at the same time. A perfect choice for weddings with a large number of young guests... Or just guests who are young at heart!

- Frozen Yogurt with topping bar
- Chocolate fountain with bite-sized fruits, cakes, and candies
- Decorate-a-Doughnut station
- Build-your-own S’Mores
- Bread Pudding
- Cookie-decorating station
- Cupcake Buffet
- Miniature Éclairs
- Fill-your-own Beignet / Profiterole station
The party isn’t over until you want it to be. Carefully crafted canapés served well into the evening let your guests know that there is still revelry to be enjoyed. Serving perfectly balanced small bites represents a fresh twist on classic “fun foods” and truly completes your special event.

- Mini Fried Chicken and Waffle Sandwich with Maple Syrup Drizzle
- Mini Cheeseburgers
- Housemade, Seasonal Ice Cream Sandwiches
- Mini Breakfast Sandwiches
- Vegetable Empanadas with Avocado Salsa
- French Fries in Paper Cones with Aioli Dipping Sauce
- Chocolate and Salted Caramel Cake Push-Up Pop
- Truffled Macaroni and Cheese Bites
- Mini Short Rib Sandwich, Caramelized Onions
- Grilled Cheddar Cheese Sandwich Bites
- Cinnamon and Sugar Dusted Churros
- A savory selection of Artisinal Cheeses and Charcuterie
Unfortunately, all good things must come to an end. When it’s time to bid your guests adieu, why not send them home with a little something to remember you by? Small favors for guests to pick up and nibble on their way back out into the world are sweet reminders of the wonderful time had by all.

- Individually-Wrapped Candies
- Small Satchels of Mints
- Gourmet Cake Pops
- Marshmallow Treats
- Cotton Candy
- Wolfgang Puck Artisan Chocolates
- Petit Fours or Bon Bons
- Canapés
- Bite-sized Sandwiches
- Handcrafted Syrups or Purees
Hand this sheet off to your wedding coordinator, or a designated bridesmaid who can help keep everything in order for your big day.
