

Family Field Trip Days: Instructions

EDUCATION

GEORGIA AQUARIUM

Step 1: Watch "Mangroves and Estuaries" Deep Sea Learning Videos with Georgia Aquarium (Found on the 'At Home Learning' tab of our website).

Step 2: Review the "Mangroves and Estuaries" Fact Sheets.

Step 3: Visit Georgia Aquarium to complete the questions and activity sheets in this packet!

Step 4: Watch one of our Aquarists feed the archer fish in the wetland habitat of a mangrove forest.

Did you know?:

February 2nd is International Wetland Day!

Gallery Scavenger Hunt: Worldly Wetlands

EDUCATION

GEORGIA AQUARIUM

Instructions: Explore Georgia Aquarium galleries and exhibits to find the answers to the questions below!

Many fish found in Tropical Diver lay their eggs close to mangrove tree roots for protection from predators. Name 3 kinds of fish in the Indo-Pacific Reef habitat:

_____,
_____, _____

The American alligator can build their nests in mangrove forests as it protects their young from large predators. How many American alligators do you see in Gator Crossing? _____

This whale can travel between oceans and estuaries in cold regions for shelter as well as hunting their prey. What is this animal?

Moray eels are also found in estuaries. Write one moray species that can be found in Georgia Aquarium?

Image sourced from: https://bmrg.org.au/wp-content/uploads/2019/07/MarvellousMangroveAustralia_1_AllAboutMangroves.pdf

Gallery Scavenger Hunt: Worldly Wetlands KEY

EDUCATION

GEORGIA AQUARIUM

Instructions: Explore Georgia Aquarium galleries and exhibits to find the answers to the questions below!

Most fish found in Tropical Diver lay their eggs close to mangrove tree roots for protection from predators. Name 3 kinds of fish in the Indo-Pacific Reef habitat: Use this link to help you identify fish: Animal Guide

The American alligator can build their nests in mangrove forests as it protects their young from large predators. How many American alligators do you see in Gator Crossing? Six

This whale can travel between oceans and estuaries in cold regions for shelter as well as hunting their prey. What is this animal?

Beluga whale

Moray eels are also found in estuaries. Write one moray species that can be found in Georgia Aquarium? Green, turkey, purplemouth, spotted