

GEORGIA AQUARIUM

Career Information

What department is this position in?

Plant Engineering

What is the position's official job title?

Maintenance technician

Does this position require a college degree?

No

Do you need any certifications outside of a degree for this position?

No certifications needed

GEORGIA AQUARIUM

Career Information

What does the average day look like for this position?

We maintain the upkeep of the entire building around the clock, so an average day starts with power, lighting, restroom maintenance, HVAC systems in the building, checking elevators, escalators, and anything that it takes to prepare our building for the enjoyment and safety of the public, our staff, and our collection of animals.

Are there any internships that help to get this position?

We do offer Internships

GEORGIA AQUARIUM

Career Information

Is there any way to volunteer or shadow with this position?

Yes, we do accept volunteers

What path did you take to get to working at Georgia Aquarium?

I was an insulator working on the Sea Lion Project back in 2016, when I was approached by the manager and director of the plant engineering department and offered a job as a technician.

GEORGIA AQUARIUM

Career Information

What is your favorite part about working at Georgia Aquarium?

The fact that I work for one of the largest aquariums in the world and get to be a part of an amazing group of coworkers.

Is there anything else you want to share about this position?

Our department is around the clock 365 days a year, so we have 3 shifts working in our department.

