A: There are internships at some zoos!

Commissary and Nutrition Services

Assistant Manager of Nutrition Services

Q: What does your average day look like?

A: An average day includes working with our nutritionist, veterinary staff, and commissary staff. I spend a lot of my time working with Excel and our record management database as well as reading research papers and making sure our animals have healthy, appropriate diets.

Q: What path did you take to get to Georgia Aquarium?

A: I went to graduate school to study animal nutrition and did an internship at a zoo. I started here as a commissary technician preparing all the food.

Q: What is your favorite part about working at Georgia Aquarium?

A: I learn new things every day. It is wonderful to have a positive impact on our animals through nutrition.

Thank You
