

Training Programs

Corporate Trainer

Q: Does the job require a degree, certification, or both?

A: Yes, a Bachelor's degree in a relevant field like business administration, human resources, organizational management, curriculum and instruction, or educational psychology is typically required. You may also find opportunities with a related degree and strong experience in the industry you're training for.

Q: Is there any way to volunteer or shadow with this position?

A: Yes

Q: Are there any internships that help to get this position?

A: Not currently

Training Programs

Corporate Trainer

Q: What does your average day look like?

A: Creating trainings for Georgia Aquarium staff and volunteers, facilitating live classes on various subjects and topics, maintaining eLearning courses, updating information, assisting staff and volunteers with the information they are learning.

Q: What path did you take to get to Georgia Aquarium?

A: I earned a degree in elementary education and certifications in K-12 reading and ESL. I taught school for 7 years. Later I came to the Aquarium as a guest programs team specialist, and my job was to educate the general public about the species in our care, research projects, and conservation. From there, it was a smooth transition into the training department. I still utilize my teaching skills and knowledge on a daily basis.

Q: What is your favorite part about working at Georgia Aquarium?

A: I feel that I am working towards a better world. The information I have to share will eventually reach the ears of thousands, if not millions, of people!

Thank You